

Literacy

- Newspaper recount on the Battle of Bosworth
- Persuasive letter writing linked to Henry VIII's wives
- Instructional and Explanation writing - how to punish someone
- Diary writing recounts - on board the Spanish Armada

Numeracy

- Planning a Tudor banquet - using informal and formal written methods (for addition, subtraction, multiplication and division) to solve money problems
- Other Numeracy taught separately through Abacus Scheme - see separate overview

ICT

- Using the internet to research information about specific areas of Tudors
- Using Word to produce newspaper recounts

The Tudors

- Timeline
- Battle of Roses
- Important Tudor Monarchs
- Crime and punishment
- Shakespeare
- Tudor life (through optional homework)
- Tudor exploration

P.E.

- Analysing, learning and inventing Tudor dances.

Art/D.T

- Designing and making a throne for King Henry VIII

Music

- Listening to and appreciating Tudor music and instruments

PSHCE

- Becoming a Queen/King for a week
- Being a role model and Setting a target to help our class 'kingdom'

Please note that this is a predicted overview and may change through the half term.